

Public Notice - For immediate Release

To Beauval's Pet Owners

The Northern Village Of Beauval has been working with Jaymz Dennett on a community initiative to "rescue" pets instead of having them put down.

The village office has limited resources at this time and are attempting to work with Jaymz to secure adequate fencing and also research long-term solutions for more permanent shelters.

Until these solutions are put into place, the fact of the matter remains that pets, in particular dogs, are roaming the community. While you may think your dog is friendly, there is always a chance they may become aggressive especially when they roam in packs. We consider this to be a serious and urgent issue.

We are asking the community to co-operate with us at this time and secure your pets in your yards and continue to keep the community safe.

Thank you for your cooperation!

Northern Spirits

Once again, huge thank you to everyone who supported our Beauval Youth. You are awesome and the youth sure appreciate it. NLSD, Northern Village of Beauval Mayor & Council, CIPI, Recreation, Northern, MDeez, General Store.

Friday after workshop we took in a movie and popcorn. Saturday we treated the youth to bowling and pizza and we stopped in at the mall on Sunday before we left P.A.

It gets costly and these youth definitely deserved a chance to go somewhere and showcase their talents and to experience something outside of their community. Mileage between the hotel rooms, meals, and entertainment.

Your support is definitely noted and here are the following youth that were selected for the Northern Spirits Showcase: Brittany Alcrow-Roy, Jansen Gunn, Jazmyn Durocher, Gina Roy, Michael Laliberte, Ashton Campbell, Isaiah Hansen.

Thank you for believing in our youth.

WOLF HUNT PROJECT EXPANDING TO ADDRESS LIVESTOCK PREDATION

Released on December 2, 2015

Starting December 15, the Ministry of Environment will offer wolf hunting opportunities in wildlife management zones (WMZ) 49 and 53 to help reduce wolf populations in these agricultural areas.

“We recognize livestock predation caused by wolves is still a significant challenge for producers in some areas and there is a need to extend the program for another year and expand it to an additional zone,” Environment Minister Herb Cox said. “This program is another tool to help control the wolf population and address predation issues in these areas.”

The objective of the hunt is to push the wolves back into the forest, into their natural habitat, and away from farms and ranches. This program will supplement the work of trappers, which is the primary method of controlling the wolf population across the province.

The wolf hunt will run from December 15 to March 31, 2016, and be restricted to WMZ 49 and 53. Zone 49 is in the Weekes and Hudson Bay area and zone 53 is in the Big River and Shellbrook area.

There will be a total of 200 licences available at Ministry of Environment offices in Big River, Spiritwood, Nipawin, Hudson Bay and Greenwater Lake Provincial Park. Each licence will entitle the holder to harvest two wolves.

Licences will be available on a first-come, first-served basis and must be picked up in person. One licence will be available per person, but a second licence may be purchased if the first one is filled and there are still licences available. Licences are restricted to Saskatchewan residents only.

As a condition of their permit, licence holders will be provided with a reporting sheet and required to report hunting results to the Ministry of Environment.

Hunters are reminded that wolves are considered a big game species and all regulations around weapon type, clothing requirements and baiting that pertain to big game apply for this hunt.
